

Storyline Writing Homework ~ Journal 12

Due: _____

DIRECTIONS: Write a letter from Parvana to her father describing what she saw at the soccer stadium and what she thought. In some cultures, thieves are punished by having their hands cut off. What would Parvana think about this? What if stealing was the only way to get food for the family? Also, include any other information about changes in her thinking and life.

Remember, your writing should be at least 1 page long (without skipping lines), and although it is a rough draft, it should be neat and your best work. Please underline any words you're not sure how to spell. Remember to use paragraphs. We will edit and do the final draft at school.
